

Chapter 25

True/False

1. Paul's teachings are not an important part of church doctrine.
2. There are many interpretations of Paul's letters.
3. The author's background and education affected his perspective of Paul's theology.
4. Some scholars have placed too much emphasis on Paul's letters.
5. Paul's letters are the only writings that address Christ and the life that flows from having a relationship with him.