

Chapter 1

True/False

1. Paul's theology has impacted Christianity.
2. There are only two ways in which to approach Paul's text.
3. The author used "realm" to organize the concepts in Paul's letters.
4. Scholars have used different approaches to study Paul's theology.
5. It is not necessary to include biblical theology in order to interpret Scripture.

1. Biblical theology is:
 - a. descriptive.
 - b. prescriptive.
 - c. inclusive.
 - d. canonical.
 - e. all of the above
2. Pauline theology is:
 - a. a synthesis of what is in Paul's letters.
 - b. a description of what is in Paul's letters.
 - c. an overview of the Gospels.
 - d. rarely discussed by scholars.
 - e. unimportant.
3. A synthesis of Paul's letters includes categorizing:
 - a. the events of the Gospels.
 - b. the content and thought of Paul's letters.
 - c. the content and thought of all the authors of the New Testament.
 - d. the events of Paul's life.
4. The concept of theology:
 - a. has never changed.
 - b. has only recently begun to evolve.
 - c. only applies to the Old Testament.
 - d. has changed over the centuries.
5. Biblical theology must be prescriptive, which means:
 - a. it includes what was written before the canon was approved.
 - b. it is studied only in Judaism.
 - c. it applies to the people of today.
 - d. it is seen in relationship to the other books of the canon.