

Chapter 3

True/False

1. The authorship of some letters attributed to Paul is debated.
2. Paul often included the names of other Christians and coworkers in his letters.
3. The events in Paul's life did not contribute to his theology.
4. It is easy to construct a chronological overview of Paul's life from his letters alone.
5. The author considered Paul to have written all the letters attributed to him.
6. Paul's conversion did not affect his theology.
1. Scholars have put together a chronological overview of Paul's life using his letters and the account of his life in Acts.
2. Paul was brought up in Jerusalem.
3. Paul used rhetorical techniques in his writings.
4. The author believed there were no coauthors of Paul's letters.
5. Paul's letters have been placed in a genre known as "rhetorical pastoral ministry."

Multiple Choice

1. What reason did the author give as to why some scholars debate the authorship of Pauline letters?
 - a. The events mentioned in the letters have been proven untrue.
 - b. They don't believe the theology in Paul's authentic letters matches the theology in the disputed letters.
 - c. They don't consider Paul to be an apostle.
 - d. They disagree with the content of the letters.
2. Paul was brought up in:
 - a. Tarsus.
 - b. Nazareth.
 - c. Bethlehem.
 - d. Jerusalem.
3. Which style of writing from Paul's time did he use frequently in his letters?
 - a. Rhetoric
 - b. Satire
 - c. Narrative
 - d. Expository

4. Paul's experience on the road to Damascus can be categorized as:
 - a. a call.
 - b. a conversion.
 - c. all of the above.
 - d. none of the above.

5. Paul's theology was influenced by:
 - a. his Jewish upbringing.
 - b. his experience on the road to Damascus.
 - c. the teachings of other early Christians.
 - d. all of the above.

6. A chronological overview of Paul's life can be constructed using:
 - a. his letters alone.
 - b. the text of Acts alone.
 - c. his letters combined with the accounts of his life in Acts.
 - d. the Gospel of Matthew.

7. The author believed that _____ letters in the New Testament were written by Paul:
 - a. thirteen
 - b. nine
 - c. eleven
 - d. fourteen

8. The author believed that Paul's greatest contribution to the faith was his:
 - a. suffering.
 - b. theology.
 - c. time as a Jew.
 - d. relationship with his coworkers.

9. The accounts of Paul's life include a time when he:
 - a. grew up in Tarsus.
 - b. married a Christian woman.
 - c. persecuted the church.
 - d. listened to Jesus's Sermon on the Mount.

10. How many missionary journeys did Paul take?
 - a. Four
 - b. Five
 - c. One
 - d. Three